Code of Ethics to be followed by IPV (Proficiency Testing)Participants:

Successful Participant Laboratories in Meena's Proficiency Testing (IPV) Scheme must understand that the following Code of Ethics shall guide the actions of the Participant Organizations certified under the IPV Scheme:

1. To uphold at all times the reputation of the Scheme and the dignity of membership therein.
2. To pursue their professional discipline and activities in a spirit of fairness to all concerned employer, employees, customers and competitors consistent with the high ideals of personal honour and integrity.
3. To refrain from associating themselves with any enterprise that would use their name or that of the Scheme in any manner tolerating misrepresentation.
4. To avoid damage directly or indirectly to the professional reputation, prospects or business of another member of the Scheme
5. To inform clients or employers of any business affiliations, interests or connections which might influence their fair judgment.
6. Perform their professional duties with proper regard for the physical environment and the safety, health and well-being of the public.
7. To encourage and provide opportunity for professional development and advancement of their employees or those under their direct supervision.
8. To avoid conflict of interests with the employer and/or contractor where possible, if it is unavoidable, disclose the same to the employer or contractor in advance.
9. To maintain their proficiency by updating their technical knowledge as required to properly practice NDT in the method the participant laboratory is authorized to.
10. To inform at the earliest to MIMeena International LLP any attempt to pressure or force an organization certified under the IPV Scheme to violate this code of ethics
11. To contribute to the advancement of NDT Community by the interchange of information and experience with others.
12. To inform relevant competent authorities immediately if their IPV certificate is suspended, withdrawn or cancelled.
13. To undertake only those NDT assignments for which they are competent by virtue of their participation in a PT Scheme and Certification.
14. To sign documents only for the work in which they have professional knowledge and/or have supervisory control.
15. To comply with all the above Code of Ethics.

We confirm that I have read the Code of Ethics fully and here by affirm full compliance of the same.
