

28th April 2025

Dear Valued Customer,

Greetings from Meena International.

We, Meena International are always committed to take your careers forward in the best ways possible and are always innovating new ways to improve your career opportunities.

Meena International has received a notification from our accreditation body (International Accreditation Services, USA) to not use the IAF logo on the certificates issued with effect from June 2024. Hence, we have reissued your certificate for further use. We request you to return your old certificate to us at your earliest convenience.

Please feel free to contact us regarding any clarification that you may have in this regard.

Sincerely,
Ashwin Kasi Viswanath
Certification Manager
